

MICI PRESENTS:

MARSHALLESE HISTORY AND CULTURE: AN MEI TRAINING

FREE TRAINING FOR PEOPLE INTERESTED IN LEARNING MORE ABOUT MARSHALLESE HISTORY AND CULTURE – SAME TRAINING DIFFERENT DATES

Presented by staff from Marshallese Educational Initiative (MEI)

MEI staff members will provide an overview of Marshallese history and culture, Marshallese in Arkansas, and notions of ability/disability. These sessions will include interactive dialogue and opportunities to discuss ways to connect with the Marshallese community in your area.

Register Now! Updated dates

Click on link below to register for the session of your choice.

Virtual Zoom Session

March 28, 9:00 am–12:00 pm

Register here:

<https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/march28>

In-Person Session

April 12, 9:00 am - 12:00pm

Location: 10809 Executive Center Drive
Searcy Building, Ground Floor Conference Room
Little Rock, AR 72211

Register here:

<https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/micimeiapril12>

In-Person Session

April 19, 9:00 am - 12:00pm

Location: Jones Center, Room 260
922 East Emma Ave.
Springdale, AR 72764

Register here:

<https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/micimeiapril19>

More Sessions Coming Soon!

Marshallese Interpreting for Community Inclusion

UA Partners for Inclusive Communities

<https://uofapartners.uark.edu/mici/>

Contact:

Tanya Miller-Witsell

tmillerw@uark.edu

501-831-7470